INTELLIGENCE CHIEF DULLES HAS MESSAGE TO U. S. FOR FOURTH

In his first signed article for popular publication, Allen W. Dulles, director of central intelligence, and a brother of the secretary of state, has a message for Americans for Independence Day in the meadow's Paragon.

Mr. Dulles gives the readers of Paragon a look at Russia and the problems Allen Dulles that faces the managers of our foreign and defense policies.

Other features of interest in Paragon in tomorrow's Sunday Enterprise are color pictures by the late photographer known as Ylla, famous for her animal pictures, and a story on the first Fourth of July.
